

The mission of the GETTING AFRICAN-AMERICAN MALES EDUCATED (G.A.M.E.) initiative is to increase the sense of community and self awareness among black males while promoting the importance of education.

G.A.M.E. participants from high schools throughout Orlando will be given the opportunity to hear brief presentations from community leaders, identify mentors, meet and be photographed with NBA players when possible, complete the EDU, Inc. Common Black College Application, and ultimately watch the Orlando Magic versus the Denver Nuggets.
